

Casavisocchi

Jig

The musical score for 'Casavisocchi' is a jig in 9/8 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 9/8 time signature. The melody is characterized by frequent eighth-note patterns and a lively, rhythmic feel. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Casavisocchi: the germ of this came while standing idly in Visocchi's with a daughter of the house one Saturday afternoon in a red Angus town. It was one of the thousands of Italian confectionary/ice cream/café businesses which did so much to brighten everyday life in Scotland

Christmas Rose

Retreat Air

The musical score for 'Christmas Rose' is a retreat air in 3/4 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is more melodic and slower than the jig, featuring dotted rhythms and a gentle, flowing character. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Christmas Rose: named for a perfect, small white Jacobite rose, pulled amongst the snow on Christmas day.