

We regret to record the death of the Author while the work was in the Press. He saw practically up to the last proofs, and all his instructions and desires have been carried out as faithfully as possible.

G. S. M.