

The first system of music consists of a single staff with a treble clef, containing a melodic line with various note values and rests. A bracket labeled "1st" spans the final few notes of this system. The second system also consists of a single staff with a treble clef, continuing the melodic line. The third system consists of a single staff with a treble clef, starting with a bracket labeled "2nd" over the first few notes, indicating a second ending.

Waltz— Mrs. Hutcheon's Favourite.

A. Hutcheon, P. M. Govan Police.

The waltz piece is written on three staves with a treble clef and a 3/4 time signature. The first staff contains the beginning of the piece, followed by the second and third staves which continue the melody. The notation includes various note values, rests, and bar lines.
